

Ilan Hirschfeld

ADVISORY SERVICES

Ilan Hirschfeld is the partner-in-charge of the New Jersey Advisory Services group and specializes in marital dissolution services. He has more than 35 years experience in both public and private accounting. As a key member of the Firm's Forensics Practice group, Mr. Hirschfeld provides creative litigation support strategies for trial and/or settlements throughout New Jersey, New York, and Pennsylvania. He focuses on commercial litigation and matrimonial matters, as well as other business litigation and valuation-related assignments.

A recognized industry expert, Mr. Hirschfeld frequently lectures on topics concerning litigation support accounting, business valuations, and matrimonial accounting. He participates on numerous industry conference panels, teaches continuing legal education courses, and recently was Adjunct Professor of Accounting at William Paterson University's Graduate School of Business. Mr. Hirschfeld has served as a mediator in both matrimonial and commercial litigation matters. Additionally, he is often court appointed on many cases and called upon for expert testimony for litigation matters.

Mr. Hirschfeld joined the Firm's forerunner in 2003. Previously, he was the executive vice president for a national cosmetic surgery and dermatology practice and was the chief operating officer and chief financial officer of a publicly-traded vitamin manufacturing company. Earlier in his career, Mr. Hirschfeld was a partner at a regional New York accounting practice and began his profession at a "Big 4" firm.
